

EXPLANATORY LEAFLET FOR EMPLOYERS

What you need to do if employees are unable to work due to illness or an accident

If employees fall ill or are involved in an accident, there are certain deadlines that employers have to meet when it comes to notifying the collective daily allowance insurance or accident insurance company or the occupational pension scheme in order to receive support in both the short and long term. This overview provides information on the notifications you need to make and by when you need to make them.
