INFORMATION

1.1 Data forwarding to PKRück and reinsurers for reinsurance purposes/collection of health data for claims processing

a) The pension provider has reinsured the risks of disability and death with PKRück AG. For the purposes of risk assessment, claims handling and any necessary verification of reported cases of incapacity for work and claims, PKRück requires the right to review personal data and to obtain further health-related information from third parties. PKRück may engage other reinsurers to carry out these tasks; for this purpose, the necessary personal data, including health data, may be disclosed to them. This data will only be used by the reinsurers for the above-mentioned purposes.

b) If the pension provider has also transferred the claims for benefits to PKRück for processing, all rights are required to review your personal data and health data, and to obtain further health-related data from third parties in order to assess whether, from when, and to what extent a claim for benefits under the occupational pension plan exists.

1.2 Assessment and offer of reintegration measures (triage/clarification)

The pension provider has commissioned PKRück to offer reintegration measures to individual insured persons following an assessment based on established criteria. In particular, this can help people return to work and support disability prevention. If, following the assessment, an offer is deemed appropriate, PKRück will commission a specialized external agency to contact the insured person (e.g., for an initial consultation).

POWER OF ATTORNEY AND CONSENT

2.1 Consent/power of attorney for clarification, reinsurance and claims processing

a) By signing, I expressly consent to the pension provider transmitting my personal data, including health data, to PKRück for the purposes of risk assessment, insurance processing, and any necessary checks, and potentially transmitting this data to other reinsurers, where it may be processed for the aforementioned purposes. I expressly acknowledge and agree that my data, including health data, will in turn be passed on by these reinsurers to other reinsurers for the same purposes.

b) I hereby authorize the pension provider or PKRück to obtain information verbally or in writing and to request files from social and private insurance providers, government agencies (in particular social services, regional employment offices, and compensation funds), my employer, etc. I hereby authorize any physicians, psychologists, physiotherapists, psychotherapists, and other medical professionals providing treatment to disclose all information and documentation pertaining to my health and any treatment to the pension provider or PKRück for the above-mentioned purposes, and I hereby release them from their duty of confidentiality in this regard. I further agree that employees of the pension provider or PKRück may pass on my personal data and health data required for this purpose to these parties.

2.2 Consent for triage and external implementation of reintegration measures

By signing this document, I expressly consent to the pension provider passing on my personal data, including health data, to PKRück for the purpose of triage/assessment regarding reintegration measures. If an offer is under consideration, my contact information may be shared with a specialized external agency to arrange an initial consultation and, if applicable, to implement the reintegration measures. There is no legal entitlement to reintegration measures.

The powers of attorney and consent granted may be revoked at any time by written notification to the pension provider and PKRück. PLEASE NOTE: Refusal or revocation may make it difficult or impossible to clarify, process insurance, and thus pay occupational pension benefits or implement reintegration measures.
